

How to develop a prayer ministry plan

by Larry Smith 6/03/03

Setting a ministry/business plan for a prayer ministry can be very helpful. God is the “master planner” for your prayer ministry and as you ask Him, he will direct you. Each church prayer ministry will develop differently. Some prayer leaders and churches will be lead one way. Other prayer leaders and churches another way.

Hopefully the thoughts below will help you as you develop your own plan.

1. Where to start? Begin with prayer. Pray for God to lead you (and your team if you have one in place), as you set an outline for your prayer ministry.

2. Pray for other like-minded pray-ers to come along side of you as you begin to pray through the plan.

3. You may want to include the following:

Your vision

Your mission statement

Your statement of faith

Your goals

Key values

Key scriptures

4. Involve your pastor and church leadership early in the process. Present your initial Prayer Team Ministry Plan to your pastor. Remember you are under his authority, and other leadership in your church. A document lets them see your vision on paper. It allows them to see where you want to go with the ministry.

To help you develop your own Prayer Team Ministry Plan, here is the initial Prayer Ministry Business Plan presented to our church leadership. (They quickly approved and offered our lay-led ministry great support).

Church Prayer Team Ministry Plan

1. Our vision: For God to establish our Church as “a House of Prayer for all nations”. Isaiah 56:6. Matthew 21:13.

2. Our mission statement:

We submit to Jesus Christ as the Head of the church and will strive to obey His command that His church should be called a House of prayer. We will not seek our own will — through our own efforts — but we will humbly come before God with a repentant heart seeking His will.

We will seek Him first in all things. We will be still before Him. We will wait for Him. We will listen for His voice. We will obey Him. We will share with the church authorities what we hear and submit to their authority.

3. Statement of faith: Prayer is the foundation God has given us to build His church upon Jesus Christ its head. Matthew 16:13-18 ¹³ When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" ¹⁴ They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets." ¹⁵ "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?" ¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." ¹⁷ Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven. ¹⁸ And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it.

Isaiah 56:7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

Matthew 21:13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Mark 11:17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Luke 19:46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Long-term goals (one to two years from now)

- 24 hour prayer for the church (sign up and pray in prayer room)
- Organize crisis prayer chain.
- Host a major prayer conference to train other prayer leaders. LOCAL churches/others.
- Advertise prayer hot line

We will always make sure we pray for these three things at our corporate gatherings for prayer.

1. For our church to become “a house of prayer”. Matthew 21:13 “It is written,” he said to them, “ ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you are making it a ‘den of robbers.’ ”

2. Praying blessings and protection for our senior pastor. For his daily time alone with God to be rich and meaningful. For God to continue to anoint him and give him understanding. For God to bless him and keep him close to Him. For our pastor to be a humble man. That he would not fall into temptation or any moral failure. For protection for him, his wife and children from the evil one. For God to surround him with his angels to protect him.

3. For the Lord of the harvest to send out the workers. Jesus commands us to ask God for workers for the harvest. Matthew 9:37,38 ³⁷ Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; ³⁸ Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

Model of the early church

The church is “conceived” in the prayer room.

Acts 1:12-15 ¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day’s walk from the city. ¹³ When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. ¹⁴ They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers. ¹⁵ In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty)

The church is “birthed” in the streets.

Acts 2:38-42 ³⁸ Peter replied, “Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call.” ⁴⁰ With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” ⁴¹ Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day. ⁴² They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

Early church members gathered often to pray corporately.

Acts 12:5-18 ⁵ So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for him. ⁶ The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries stood guard at the entrance. ⁷ Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. “Quick, get up!” he said, and the chains fell off Peter’s wrists. ⁸ Then the angel said to him, “Put on your clothes and sandals.” And Peter did so. “Wrap your cloak around you and follow me,” the angel told him. ⁹ Peter followed him out of the prison, but he had no idea that what the angel was doing was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰ They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went through it. When they had walked the length of one street, suddenly the angel left him. ¹¹ Then Peter came to himself and said, “Now I know without a doubt that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from Herod’s clutches and from everything the Jewish people were anticipating.” ¹² When this had dawned on him, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying. ¹³ Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer the door. ¹⁴ When she recognized Peter’s voice, she was so overjoyed she ran back without opening it and exclaimed, “Peter is at the door!” ¹⁵ “You’re out of your mind,” they told her. When she kept insisting that it was so, they said, “It must be his angel.” ¹⁶ But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. ¹⁷ Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. “Tell James and the brothers about this,” he said, and then he left for another place. ¹⁸ In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter.

The elders declared they were to give their attention to prayer and the ministry of the word.

Acts 6:1-4 ¹ In those days when the number of disciples was increasing, the Grecian Jews among them complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. ² So the Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, “It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables. ³ Brothers, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them” ⁴ and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word.”
